PRESS RELEASE

Knight Frank Investment Management appoints BNP Paribas Real Estate as property manager of the North Galaxy Building.

The British investment manager Knight Frank Investment Management (KFIM) has decided to appoint BNP Paribas Real Estate as property manager of the iconic North Galaxy buildings. North Galaxy is an office complex consisting of two 27 storey towers and a smaller 5 storey building and comprises close to 122,000 sqm of gross lettable area and 611 car parking spaces.

Since building completion in 2004, the property is fully leased to Federal Public Services Finance, the government organisation responsible for Belgium’s finances and taxation.

David Johnson Partner at KFIM says, “We are delighted to have secured this opportunity and expand our portfolio in another major European city. We currently work with BNP Property Management in a number of countries across Europe and very much look forward to working with the BNP Belgium team.”

“It is a pleasure to manage one of the tallest and iconic buildings in Brussels. In addition, we are grateful to undertake a new collaboration with Knight Frank investment Management for property management services in Belgium,” adds Frédéric Van de Putte, CEO of BNP Paribas Real Estate Belgium.
